

LONDON W2

If you fancy being the grander neighbours to Prince Harry and Meghan Markle — whose love nest, Nottingham Cottage, has two bedrooms — check out this redeveloped townhouse on Ossington Street, near the entrance to Kensington Palace. It has nearly 4,000 sq ft of living space behind a restored Victorian facade, with six bedrooms, a central courtyard and a living wall spanning all five floors. There'll be no comparing swatches with Meghan, though — it's fully furnished, down to the Devon-hewn wooden kitchen stools and the vintage accessories. 020 7349 9610, echlinlondon.com
